TWO UNPLEASANT BETWEEN PERILS THE "ANTIS" STAND.

They Are Pulled Back and Forth, First by Hitz, then by Holtzman Leaders.

GOOD FUN FOR REPUBLICANS

SQUABBLING OF THE DISAFFECTED IS MUSIC IN THEIR EARS.

Senator Beveridge Will Make His First Speech of the Campaign Oct. 3 in Tomlinson Hall.

The managers of the Republican city campaign are deriving no little satisfaction over the division of sentiment among the so-called anti-Bookwalter or independent Republicans. The antis, while manifesting a great deal of activity and making a vigorous show of opposition to the administration, are unable to get together as to the candidate they should support against Mayor Bookwalter. They have held numerous meetings at which they attempted to decide on concerted action, but no such ac- to power such dissensions would of themtion could be taken because, while a few of the leaders of the movement insist on supporting Holtzman, the Democratic candidate, the larger element is equally insistent that the independent votes should go to their blundering errors lost the confidence

The antis will open their headquarters Monday, will hold a meeting of the new will issue an appeal to the voters of the then there was only the one question of the Wisconsin-Warmer Sunday, showers and city the following day. This address will then there was only the one queened tariff about which they were deadlocked, consist solely of an attack on Mayor Book- while now their irrecond walter. The leaders had hoped to include in this address an argument that the independent voters should support Holtzman, but they did not dare take such a step at this time. Their programme now is to wait until a few days before the election and then declare for the Democratic candidate, on the grounds that there is no chance of electing Hitz.

isfaction from the position of the antis because they realize that little headway can be made in a campaign that is one of opposition alone. Criticism and opposition will bear little fruit, they believe, unless it is supplemented by an aggressive indorsement of one of the other candidates. In other words, a voter cannot be against Mayor Bookwalter unless he is for Holtzman or Hitz, and when his advisers leave him in doubt as to which road he should take in turning from Bookwalter the chances are that he will reconsider and decide to keep

Dr. Ridpath and the other leaders of the antis realize the futility of the fight they are making at present, but they are helpless and can only hope to educate their followers to believe in Holtzman while they are at the same time endeavoring to draw more voters from the Republican ticket.

NEWLIN MAKES CHARGES.

Declares Administration

Threatening Friends of Geo. Hitz. Prohibition Chairman Charles E. Newlin came out with the charge yesterday that the boycott is being used against Hitz and those who have let it become known that date. Mr. Newlin asserts that Hitz's bread is being barred at the county jail, that the administration forces have threatened the Vonnegut Hardware Company with a loss of patronage because Mr. Vonnegut's name was one of those appended to the Hitz address to the public, and that the editor of the Recorder, one of the organs of the colored people, had been told by prominent politicians that he would be broken up if he did not step supporting Hitz.

The Republican managers refuse to dignify Mr. Newlin's charges with a denial. Mr. Newlin also gives out an announcement of the result of his thirty-day poll, in which he claims that a large per cent. of the precincts, so far as canvassed, show that Hitz has more votes committed to him than either of the other candidates, but that more than 50 per cent. of the voters are noncommittal. He expects to get a large part of the noncommittal vote for Hitz. Mr. Newlin mentions several precincts in which Hitz has more than double as many committed votes as both Mr. Bookwalter and Mr. Holtzman together.

Chairman Logsdon has not yet selected his five precincts, but will settle the question Monday. Monday night the ordinance authorizing the use of the machines in the ten precincts will be introduced at the meeting of the City-Council. Deputy City Attorney Lynn B. Hay will prepare the ordinance and Evans Woollen will pass on it for the Democrats.

Mayor Will Speak Again.

The Republican managers were arranging yesterday for a meeting Monday or Tuesday night in the Fifteenth ward. A hall has been secured and the tent will not be brought into service at this meeting, Mayor Bookwalter will be the principal speaker. Chairman Logsdon yesterday announced

The Democrats have arranged for a meeting Friday night of this week in Phoenix Hall, on the South Side. Voters of the Eleventh, Twelfth and Thirteenth wards are invited to attend the meeting.

OHIO'S BIG THREE.

(CONCLUDED FROM FIRST PAGE.) who has been ostentatiously pardoned by Mr. Bryan for the offense of being a Gold Democrat in 1896, on the ground that he didn't know any better. This theory finds confirmation in the fact that Mr. Clarke is willing in the bright light of the present to become a candidate for United States senator on a platform that proclaims all the heresies against which he then, without the light of subsequent experience, so vigorously inveighed.

"He has announced that he desires to have a joint debate. He should be accommodated, but the debate should be between John H. Clarke of 1903 and John H. Clarke of 1896. I don't know of anybody else who has time to debate with him. But I do know that it will keep John H. Clarke of 1903 busy until election day has come and gone to answer John H. Clarke of 1896. For John H. Clarke of 1896, notwithstanding what Mr. Bryan says about his lack of knowledge, was at that time a very able and vigorous man, who said in a vigorous and forcible way a great many things that nobody has ever yet answered, or ever will

"So long as they are out of power no harm is done, but if they should be restored selves paralyze all their efforts and visit upon the country again the disastrous experiences to which we were subjected in 1893, when, for the same reason, they found themselves unable to legislate about the tariff and because of that inability and of the business interests and plunged the whole country into a disastrous and long continuous panic.

"It would be much worse than it was embrace not only the tariff, but the coinevery other question with which we have preceding him in receiving ovations. to deal. They disagree upon every important subject."

"Can any one suggest anything more calamitous than the Democratic party in power, and under the leadership of such men as W. J. Bryan and Tom L. We have never had a representative in the United States Senate who has better earned this honor. He has rendered there the most conspicuous services. Not Ohio alone, but the whole Nation is indebted to him for what he has done. He is a great leader, not only in the councils of his party, but also in the legislation and statesmanship of his time. He is broad-minded, patriotic and thoroughly American. He stands at all times for the best interests of his country and is ever ready and able to efficiently uphold his cause. His defeat would be a national disappointment and a

It is fit cause for congratulation that our victory in Ohio this year will help insure his triumph next yea ...

The audience was very demonstrative at the close of Foraker's speech, and broke out into continuous cheering when Governor Nash introduced Senator Hanna as the next speaker.

HANNA HITS CLARKE.

The Senator Exposes the Fallacies of the Would-Be Solon.

Senator Hanna devoted the introductory part of his speech to State affairs. Touching upon national questions, he said: "Mr. Clarke, whether he did it thoughtlessly or intentionally, in a public utterthis statement: 'This country is on the

NOT FIT TO BE LEADER. "Suppose that, predicated upon that speech, an alarm had been sounded that would have had practical effect. Suppose even-which is not true-that conditions of this country had been such that a spark like that would have ignited the dynamite, and then, after the harm was done, after wretchedness and woe had come to thousands of families, after it had been demonstrated that there was no cause for alarm, but merely the vaporings of a politician seeking to bewilder the minds of honest people, what ought to be done with such a man? Is he fit, or is any such man fit, to stand before an intelligent people, such as we have in Ohio, and be called a leader or an adviser as to the best methods and best policies to be adopted in the interests of our country? "I say, my friends, that the only danger that can possibly come-and I make this statement from the standpoint of a business man, and I think I know my business bet-

"If it were thought that the heresies of Tom Johnson and his socialistic followers could make any impression upon the people of Ohio, so as to change the political conhere, I will tell you what would The men who control these great stries, the men whose power and money who are associated with them as partners, dends paid during the year of $881,324, the together with the men who work with their | profit and loss account shows a credit balhands in this great business development, | ance of $3,230,300.03. would act upon the hypothesis that it is better to wait and know the truth than to surmise it and speculate upon it. that Senator Beveridge will speak Oct. 3 at a meeting in Tomlinson Hall. The meeting of Senator Fairbanks has not yet been araker in making the appeal to our people under these circumstances, to send a word of greeting and confidence to the young President at Washington and let him know that Ohio never falters in the right, and will not this time, and that we will lead in the campaign of 1904.

CONDITIONS NORMAL. "The conditions, my fellow-citizens, in this country are normal. That is to say, they are not abnormal. There is no reason why we should not have long and continued periods of prosperity in this country, because our natural resources are beyond those of any nation in the world,

"When I hear the men who are pretending to lead the Democracy of Ohio to-day talk about capturing the labor vote-well, I smile. Were it not in some phases of it a serious question, I should even laugh. But there is a serious side to it, my friends. There is a serious side to it because if, through ignorance of the true conditions or through any undue excitement created during a campaign, the laboring men of this State should be led away from the party and the principles which have done so much for them, then it would be serious, because that element which leads and dominates the Democratic party to-day stands not for tariff for revenue, but absolute free trade. "Mr. Clarke qualifies his positon on the tariff by saying that he would take the tariff entirely off of every article manufactured by trusts. What does that mean? Every iron and steel industry in the United States, everything connected with the metal trades, with the cotton trades, and in fact, nearly all of our great industries would come within the scope of his proposition. Why, is there any intelligent man among the workingmen of my State who does not know what would be the result of that years to come, whether they are in power policy? Absolute free trade, through all the schedules of our tariff, would shut up 75 per cent, of the industrial institutions of the United States until we could get labor down to the price where we could compete with Europe. That is what you are up against, boys. "No, as far as your interests lie, in the direction of national questions, let me repeat; the questions have not changed, the principles have not changed, the results have not changed and you stand here today just exactly where you stood years ago in this State when, under the leadership of the gallant man who believed in protective policy and in safe money, you followed him to the polls and year after year registered your verdict that that was the policy for the working classes of this State and country." State Senator Harding was the last

speaker, and he held the audience for some age of money, the currency, expansion and | time, being equally successful with the two

I regret very much if I have unintentionally offended against the political pro-prieties in this matter. Please renew the invitation in form so as to comply in all in regard to salaries. It is averred the respects with Chairman Dick's notions of political etiquette. Mr. Salen this afternoon mailed the following letter to Chairman Dick at Akron, O.: "On behalf of Hon. John H. ocratic candidate for United States senator from Ohio, I formally challenge Senator M. A. Hanna to a series of joint debates with Mr. Clarke at such places and times as Mr. Hanna may select, with the one proviso that the debates are to take place in counties and senatorial districts which are considered doubtful politically, each party to the debate to have the privilege of such questions as he may consider as being issues in this campaign. If this challenge is accepted I would suggest that we meet as soon as possible to arrange for the time, places and rules for the debates.'

They Hint at Bad Faith on the Part of the Board in Making the Contracts -Other News of the Schools.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAPORTE, Ind., Sept. 19 .- Something of a sensation was caused to-day by the announcement that Prof. C. J. Perry, instructor of science, and Miss Caroline Klager, teacher of German and English composition in the Laporte High School, had resigned because of a breach between the School Board and members of the faculty board was able to make contract with the teachers at low salaries under the plea that it could not afford higher salaries, but it is said that it has since been discovered that the school trustees have been accumulating a large reserve fund for years. The teachers claim to be overworked in the High School, the faculty now, when there are 250 pupils, being no larger than it was when there were but 150 students. Other resignations are looked for. Mr. Perry and Miss Klager will take up special work at higher institutions of learning. The board has sent Professor Wood out to secure teachers to take the places of those who have left.
